

ANDREW DISNEY

MISSION

DISRUPT. FASCINATE. INSPIRE.

STORY

Born and raised in Fort Worth, Texas, Andrew was introduced to the world of film at a very young age when his older brother, Jason Disney, showed him Raiders of the Lost Ark. Making home movies in his backyard, Andrew grew up aspiring to be a film director. By the age of eighteen, Andrew had exhibited a short film at the Los Angeles International Film Festival and studied abroad at the famous Cinecetta Studios in Rome, Italy. After high school, he went on to study film production at New York University's Tisch School of the Arts.

At the end of 2007, Andrew completed his award-winning short film Frank's Last Shot, which debuted at the Lone Star International Film Festival and has played in festivals across the country. Since then, he has won a Best in Show Addy, a Fort Worth Weekly Visionary Award, an Audience Award at the Fort Lauderdale International Film Festival, and been featured in Filmmaker Magazine and Popular Photography. Now at the age of 26, Andrew recently completed his first feature film, Searching for Sonny, starring Minka Kelly, Jason Dohring, and Masi Oka.
